Right to rent

From 1st February 2016, landlords and letting agents in England are required to check the immigration status of all adult tenants before they agree to enter into a tenancy agreement. This is to establish you have a 'right to rent' legally in the UK. We will contact you to arrange a suitable time and location to perform this check.

A tenancy agreement cannot be granted if all adult occupiers cannot prove they have a right to rent in the UK.

To establish whether you have permanent right to rent we will need you to provide sufficient evidence of a permanent or temporary right to rent in the UK.

Further information on supporting documents and proving your right to rent status is available at <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/right-to-rent-document-checks-a-user-guide>.

Next of kin/emergency contact details (tenant applicants only)

Please provide details of your next of kin/emergency contact.
